Jailer Wallace found 11 steel saws in a bundle of newspapers sent to Claud O'Brien from Memphis, Tenn. The jailer also intercepted a letter apparently written by O'Brien's mother, giving him directions what to do in the event of his escape from the Lexington battle.

President Haer, of the Reading Company, made the closing argument for the operators before the Anthracite Coal Strike Commission. He asserted that a uniform scale would be an impossibility and favored the plan of a sliding scale to rise and fall with the price of coal. Mr. Darrow, in closing for the miners, declared that if Mr. Haer had been willing to agree to such a scale at the outset there would have been no strike.

Sickness steals more savings than the burglar. Slowly, coin by coin, the money that has been so hard earned is paid out for drugs and doctors. Sickness is the worst enemy of the working man, and the common cause of the working man's sickness is disease of the stomach often involving the heart, lungs, liver, or kidneys.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will stop the stealing of the savings by sickness. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures diseases of heart, liver, lungs, kidneys, etc., when these diseases are caused by the diseased condition of the stomach and its allied organs.

"About ten years ago I began to have trouble with my stomach," writes Wm. Connolly, of 333 Walnut Street, Lorain, Ohio. "It got so bad I had to lay off quite often two and three days in a week, my stomach would swell, and I would belch up gas, and was in awful distress at such times. I have employed and been treated by the best doctors in the city but got no help whatever. By some way or other I happened to get hold of a box of your 'Pelllets,' and I thought they helped me. It was then I wrote to you for advice. You told me that by my symptoms you thought I had liver complaint, and advised the use of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets' in connection. These medicines I have taken as directed, and am very happy to state that I commenced to get better from the start and have not lost a day this summer on account of my stomach. I feel tip-top, and better than I have for ten years."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." Nothing else is "just as good."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate the bowels.

At a dance at Edenton, Madison county, Harlan Reynolds shot and instantly killed Rose Vanderwood and then killed himself. The cause of the tragedy is not known. Both men were said to have been drinking.

The anti-saloon spirit has struck Jellico, and it seems the saloons must go. A mass meeting, which was composed of the leading citizens of the town, met to decide whether the present charter of the town should be annulled. They denounced the saloons.

So far as is known Capt. H. M. Jackson has been hounded only once since our last issue. Carland Singleton of Stanford, was a visitor here Thursday. Joe Lawson is talking of moving to Boyle county to live. We will miss him of course, though he isn't much bigger than a pound of soap after a hard day's washing.

Better Than Gold.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by all Druggists.

A correspondent of the Georgetown Times, writing of Barboursville, says he saw "a fair maiden milking a muley cow sitting in a rocking chair singing 'When the Sun Goes Down.'" We should think a cow sitting in a rocking chair and singing almost anything would make a fellow "laff fit to kill himself."—Cynthiana Democrat.

THE Methodists seem more certain of having secured the million of dollars they set out to raise for the new century than they are of saving the number of souls they aimed to gather in. The contention that the church had made one million and a half converts in the last four years is sharply disputed by Dr. Buckley, of New York. Methodism, this staunch churchman asserted, was declining in the east, and there was no use disguising the fact. It is to be hoped Dr. Buckley is mistaken. The country has been in the habit of looking to the Methodist church as the evangelizing arm of Protestantism. But if the salt of Methodism has lost its savor, what is to be done? It may be assumed, however, that even if Dr. Buckley is correct, the church will be in no wise discouraged. It will doubtless press forward with renewed energy to recover the lost ground in its ancient assurance that the church militant is to become the church triumphant.

THE President's policy of appointing Negroes to federal offices in the South and also in the North received a staggering blow in the Senate Committee on Commerce, when the nomination of Crum to be Collector of Customs at Charleston, S. C., was turned down by a vote of 8 to 6. Two republicans, Perkins, of California, and Jones, of Nevada, and all the democratic members of the committee voted against Crum. Other republicans were prepared to do so if their votes were needed to defeat him. The sentiment of the committee with the exception of perhaps four republicans, was strongly against naming a Negro to so important an office, especially in view of the fierce opposition of the white residents of South Carolina, regardless of politics.

GEN. BASIL DUKE says the President offered him the Federal Judgeship over a week ago. He had intended to keep it secret, but the President mentioned the tender himself to Mr. Kehoe. The old Confederate, who fought so bravely under John H. Morgan, ought to be ashamed of the course he has pursued and doubtless he is, else he would not have attempted to keep the offer a secret.

THERE is plenty of money in circulation if you can get hold of it. The amount now in the United States is, according to the treasury department, the largest ever reported as to total stock and circulation, being $2,355,738,234, or $90,000,000 more than a year ago. The increase in circulating medium since 1896 has been $766,000,000.

FRIDAY the House broke all previous records in the matter of private pension legislation. It was the last opportunity of passing pension bills at this session and the calendar was cleared not only of House but of Senate bills, 325 in all being passed. Three hundred and twelve is the highest previous record made.

SINCE a great many society ladies find that they can not belong to the order of Daughters of the Revolution, an exchange suggests that they get up a new organization of "Mothers of the Next War."

THERE are just two more weeks of Deboe, Moss and Irwin, thank the Lord, and then the Congressional delegation will be democratic with the exception of Boreling from the 11th district.

HAWAII has asked congress for $6,000,000 for public works this year. It has taken Hawaii almost no time to learn that the United States treasury is legitimate loot.

POLITICAL.

The Army Staff Bill was signed by the president and is now a law.

Gen. Joe Wheeler has declared himself in favor of pensioning former slaves.

Andrew Carnegie offered to pay the sum of $500,000 in cash, demanded by Germany of Venezuela in addition to the amount previously agreed on.

The Indiana Senate killed the bill to permit Sunday base ball playing.

Judge T. R. McBeath, the new reporter for the Court of Appeals, has been sworn in.

The protocols have all been signed and the blockade of Venezuelan ports has been raised by the powers.

The President sent to the Senate the name of George B. Cortelyou to be Secretary of Commerce of Labor.

John Alshury, who ran against Lincoln for the Legislature in Illinois, died in the poor asylum at Buffalo, Ill.

The Omnibus Public Building Bill carries $10,000 each for the government buildings at Henderson and Mayaville.

Attorney General Knox says the legislation affecting trusts as passed by Congress is satisfactory to the Administration.

William Jennings Bryan fiercely assailed Mr. Cleyland and the democrats who left the party in 1896 in a speech at Columbus, O.

At a big meeting of Negroes in Washington, President Roosevelt was enthusiastically proclaimed a second Abraham Lincoln.

James M. Richardson, editor of the Glasgow Times, and one of the State Prison Commissioners, will, it is said, be a candidate for Congress in the Third district next year.

Some of the democratic Senators are trying to induce Mr. Tillman to refrain from delivering his promised speech on the president's Negro appointments, but there is little probability that he will desist.

Politicians at Mt. Sterling say this will be the democratic ticket: For governor, Beckham; for lieutenant governor, Renick; for auditor, Hager; treasurer, Richardson; secretary of State, McChesney; attorney general, Carroll; clerk of appellate court, Chinn.

Senator Fortune, of Jeffersonville, created a sensation at Indianapolis by announcing that a lobbyist had approached him with an offer for four votes. The lobbyist asked that the votes be secured in the interest of a gambling bill pending in the Indiana Legislature.

Carnival of Crime.

From the Somerset Journal we learn that a meeting of wholesale liquor dealers and distillers held at the Galt House in Louisville, resolved that "The Carnival of Crime," which has recently held sway in Louisville, is due largely to a few disreputable saloons, and expressed hostility towards every saloon conducted in violation of the law.

But in as much of the judges of the criminal courts of this country have testified that three-fourths of the crimes committed in the United States are the direct or indirect results of the liquor business, the people do not need an opinion on the subject from the Reputable Resolvers.

What is the difference in effects on a man, who drinks whiskey in a "disreputable saloon, and one who drinks in a law abiding saloon?

How any man can call a business Reputable, that causes more misery, crime and poverty than everything else combined, is a mystery to any one free from Mammon and Bacchus.

It is further stated that "The President of the National Wholesale Liquor Dealers is instructed to prepare a model license law for submission to the Legislatures of the various States to the end that improper persons may not be licensed to retail liquors."

When the devil submits a code on morals and religion to the Almighty, will this act of arrogance be equaled?

No amount of license tax; no amount of reasoning; no amount of condemnation of little dogs by big leaders and heads of the army of man-destroyers can make a business reputable or right that has cursed every family in the United States; coming as close, at least, as first cousins. I challenge the exception. JOS. BALLOU.

THIS AND THAT.

Mark Hardin bought of Ansel Baugh a milk cow for $30.

The Standard Oil Company has declared a dividend of $20 per share.

Leonard Tipton was drowned by the overturning of a boat in Estill county.

A Philadelphia diamond broker was robbed of $7,000 worth of diamonds at Chicago.

Williston, N. D., is the coldest spot in the United States, the temperature there being 42 degrees below zero.

The blizzard has crippled the railroads in various parts of the country. In Wisconsin the temperature dropped to 23 degrees below.

Dr. J. I. Tharp, a physician of Washington, Ge., was shot and killed by Frank Rucker, who alleged the doctor had insulted Mrs. Rucker.

Escaped an Awful Fate.

Mr. H. Higgins, of Melbourne, Fla., writes, "My doctor told me I had consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by all Druggists. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Room for rent. Mrs. E. Higgins.

WAYNESBURG.

Mumps are still prevalent here.

Mad dogs have made their appearance again in this community.

The sale of Tom Braewell was well attended and much property was disposed of.

The young folks had quite a nice time at the party at Mr. S. H. Gooch's Saturday night.

Richard Jacobs and Will Routon had an altercation last Saturday, resulting in Routon getting an arm broken.

Rev. W. R. Davidson filled his appointment here Saturday and Sunday, delivering some excellent sermons.

The wet weather has put the roads in very bad condition which makes traveling very unpleasant in this part of the country.

The Maccabees have put a nice fence around their hall, which improves the looks considerably. If we only had some sidewalks now, we would begin to look rather "townish."

Royal Gooch and sister, Miss Eta, entertained a number of their friends Saturday evening at their home in a most charming manner. Every one went away feeling happy over having been present.

E. B. Caldwell & Sons are doing a splendid mercantile business at this place. They can supply their customers with most any thing they call for. Gooch & Sons, who carry a full line of city stocks, are also doing a good business.

We had quite a nice time at our box supper Wednesday night. Several dollars were made up for the benefit of the school library. Little Van Singleton has the mumps; also Brinkley Gooch and several of the other children in the neighborhood.

Dr. A. K. Caldwell purchased of Dutch Gooch a fine saddle horse. The doctor is a fine fellow in every way, both as a physician and as a citizen, but he thinks quite a lot of his horse. He can be seen at most any time of day or night, but in all cases, be the call urgent or not, he travels just the same, never exerting his horse.

Little Miss Eta Gooch, the child telegraph operator, has been down with mumps, but is out again. Miss Ora Williams is teaching school at Highland, where she seems to be giving great satisfaction. Mrs. Pitman has returned from Junction City, where she has been so long on account of small-pox. W. M. Gooch went to Stanford yesterday to be treated for appendicitis by Dr. O'Hannon.

Mrs. H. Singleton and Mrs. Lee Doty went to Lexington Saturday. Mrs. Dr. A. K. Caldwell has been visiting her friends at Middleburg. Mrs. W. M. Jackson, of Chattanooga, is with her father, E. B. Caldwell, Jr., and family. Mrs. Caldwell is a beautiful and talented lady. She leaves soon to join her husband in West Virginia, where they will make their future home. We regret very much to give her up as she is our leading society and church worker, having served the Sunday school both as secretary and treasurer for five years.

THE "hitching post" question at Harrodsburg is at last settled and the country breathes easier. The court of appeals affirmed the judgment of the Mercer circuit court in the case of the county of Mercer against the city of Harrodsburg. The county instituted the suit for $3,200 damages for alleged failure of the city to carry out a contract for the improvement of the court house square and the preservation of a hitching post thereon. The city had abolished the rack as being a nuisance. The circuit court, dismissing the petition of the plaintiff. The appellate court in upholding that judgment, says that the contract was entered into with the knowledge that the rack might become a nuisance as the city grew in population and that the county is entitled to no relief for the abating of the nuisance. Now let the good country people of Mercer patrol the livery stables. Their horses will fare much better and the expense will not be so great. We commend to them the stable kept by our good friend and former county man, Mr. Luther B. Gliven.

KINGSVILLE—If as much business were done all over Lincoln county as is transacted on the 25 or 30 acres covered by Kingsville, this would be the busiest portion of this grand old Commonwealth. There is scarcely a minute during working hours that the Kingsville merchants are not "up and doing" and the volume of business done in that insignificant looking little town is immense. The merchants are W. L. McCarty, G. A. Walter, J. M. McCarty, J. W. Thompson and Dan Hester, and if they are not getting rich we do not see why. Besides selling every imaginable kind of merchandise a great amount of timber of various kinds is handled by them. This brings in lots of filthy lucre and is good both for the timber men and merchants. The Fennybacker Hotel, now in charge of J. M. McCarty, is as popular as of yore, and is deservedly so. Mr. McCarty and his excellent wife are setting a splendid table and the rooms are as clean and tidy as you find anywhere. Mr. McCarty, of the Kings Mountain Cannery Co., is contracting for a large crop of tomatoes and beans this year. His canned goods are always in demand and sell at top prices. Dan Hester is enlarging his restaurant so as to better accommodate his large and growing patronage. G. A. Walter is still selling lots of goods. He is as popular as a bean as he is as a merchant and the wonder is to us, how he has remained a bachelor so long. Dr. C. M. Thompson is beautifying his home with a corps of carpenters and painters. The Christian church has recently been treated to a coat of paint. Mrs. Cuediff, who had a limb broken a number of months ago, still suffers at times from the injured member. She is able to walk, however.

A Mississippi minister married seven wives and is now in prison.

Memorial exercises commemorating the blowing up of the battleship Maine were held in Havana harbor by Americans and Cubans Sunday.

The Jews now propose to follow all the other churches and have one or more field secretaries for the organization of congregations and Sabbath schools.

Rev. C. E. W. Dobbs, formerly editor of the Democrat at Harrodsburg, has been unanimously called to the pastorate of the First Baptist church at Marietta, Ga. He has decided to accept and will remove with his family to the Georgia city in the near future.

A. A. Warren has been elected superintendent of the Christian Sunday School to succeed W. S. Greer, who recently moved to Big Stone Gap. Mr. Warren was superintendent of the Sunday School at Stanford for several years.—Middleboro News. The Sunday School would have found it difficult to procure the services of a better man or a better fitted one.

The trial of Sol and Jim Tom Griffin, charged with the murder of Deputy Sheriff Wash Thacker, in Clay county two years ago, ended in a verdict of not guilty at London.

Unknown men, disguised as women, robbed an East St. Louis, Ill., jewelry store of a tray of diamonds.

People Will Talk.

Yes, people will talk,
The saying is true—
They talk about me,
And they talk about you.

If we go to the opera,
Some one will say
We "should go to church
And learn how to pray."

If we go to church
And offer up prayers,
They say we are hypocrites
And putting on airs.

If we are rich,
They call us a thief,
Scold at our sorrows,
And laugh at our grief.

If we are poor,
They say that we shrink,
Were always lazy
And never would work.

They talk of our prospects,
They talk of our past,
And if we are happy,
They say it can't last.

They talk of our loved ones,
They talk of our loss,
They talk of our follies,
They talk of our woes.

They talk of our joys,
They talk of our fears,
They talk of our smiles,
They talk of our tears.

They talk if we're single,
And they talk if we wed,
They talk of us living,
And will talk of us dead.

Tho' we live like an angel,
With circumspect walk,
Our efforts are useless—
For people will talk.—Ex.

A Forceful Reminder.

The other day a colored teamster, driving along the Booneboro pike with an empty hay wagon, pulled to one side near Forest Grove church and stopped to think. He had forgotten something and was cudgeling his brain quite seriously, when a well known citizen of Winchester came along.

"Howdy do boss; howdy do," said the teamster. "I'm mighty glad to see yer, 'deed I is. Kase I is in er heap er trouble. Mr. Galoo, he done sent me down here ter get er load er hay an' I done clean lurge de man's name wat's got de hay. Now boss, you knows all dese people 'roun here, sopen you call niver de names an' mebbe hit'll kinder 'fresh my memry'."

"Well, said the citizen, "was it Bush?"

"No sah."
"Elkie?"

"No sah."
"Lile?"

"No sah."
"Quisenberry?"

"No sah." Didn't sound nuthin' like nua er dem. Soun'ed mo' like cump'n moided me er Crismus, an' de lose er July, an' t'logs like dat."

"Holliday?"

"Dat's de man! Dat's de man!" shouted the darker, throwing up both hands. "Mr. Lewis Holliday! Much erbleeged, boss! Git up, Lize. Dat's de man!" and on he went for the hay.

Tendency of the Times.

The tendency of medical science is to ward preventive measures. The best thought of the world is being given to the subject. It is easier and better to prevent than to cure. It has been fully demonstrated that pneumonia, one of the most dangerous diseases that medical men have to contend with, can be prevented by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of influenza (grip), and it has been observed that this remedy counteracts any tendency of these diseases toward pneumonia. This has been fully proven in many thousands of cases in which this remedy has been used during the great prevalence of colds and grip in recent years, and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. Pneumonia often results from a slight cold when no danger is apprehended until it is suddenly discovered that there is fever and difficulty in breathing and pains in the chest, then it is announced that the patient has pneumonia. Be on the safe side and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the cold is contracted. It always cures. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

H. C. Robertson, the star alibi witness for Jim Howard, has apparently gone for good. He was under bond of $500 on the charge of false swearing in the Franklin circuit court. This bond was forfeited at the term last fall, and Robertson's bondsman, N. I. McDaniel, a Franklin business man, has paid over that amount.
